Proceedings of a Meeting of Vinton

E. A. BRATTON.

County Veterans. . At a meeting of the Veteran Volunteers. of Vinton County. O., held at McArthur, Ohio, on the 28th of December 1865. On motion Wm. F. Brewer was appointed Chairman and James N. Brown, was chosen Seceratary. When after discussion thereon the following Preamble and Resolutions were unamimously adopted.

WHEREAS; The Veteran Soldiers, who after serving out their first term of enlist ment, again enrolled themselves in the Army of the Republic, were the most effect tual egents in crushing out the Rebellion,

WHEREAS, By this act they signalized, in the most impressive manner their devoreward or hope of it, except the reward to be enjoyed in common with those who remained safely at home, under their protec-bly distinguished from those who enlisted at the eleventh hour, under the inducement of large bounties and the draft ; and

WHEREAS, They caused themselves to be credited to their respective townships, from State and County pride and to save their relatives and neighbors from a draft on their persons. (as well as pockets, to the extent of two and three hundred dollars,) at a loss to themselves, of from two to seven hundred dollars for credit else where; and

WHEREAS, The General Assembly of Ohio, acknowledged the claims of the Vetcrans, by passing an act, to authorize the Trustees of Townships to issue a boad of one readers to the Report of General Grant to hundred dollars to each re-enfisted Volunthe President, on the fourth page of this neer credited to their respective townships,

READERS bear in mind if you want townships of Vinton county, refuse to is sue and money, as no papers will be sent that it was the intention of our law makers. that some Veterans should receive this bounty, and that others should not, and to leave this matter to the mere whims and to caprice of the Trustees of townships; - in this county, to test their liability by virtue of said act of the legislature.

RESDLVED. That we will vote for no eran Volunteers, for the action of the boys man as Trustee in our respective townships refuse to pay this local bounty. It is right, hereby call on our friends to stand by us
